Event Sat. June 18th

Please take note of the flyer on page 3 for an upcoming HFCCC fundraiser. This is a joint effort with the Family Readiness Group, which helps families who have a parent deployed overseas.

Veterans Wanted

We are aware that there are more WWII veterans in our area, so we are reaching out to our readers to let us know if you know any of these men and women or you can send them to our website HonorFlightCCC.org to fill out an application.

The Tour of Honor Flight in May was another memorable trip, although a very wet day in Washington D.C. We were still able to see many of the memorials plus a visit to the Smithsonian Air & Space Museum. We toured the Annapolis Naval Academy and Fort McHenry before heading home on Weds. I want to thank everyone who came out early on Monday to see us off and those that were there when we arrived back home. It means so much to see all those smiling faces and the wonderful display of flags.

“If you want total security, go to prison. There you’re fed, clothed, given medical care and so on. The only thing lacking....is freedom.” Dwight D. Eisenhower

DONATION BUTTONS

We have two donation buttons to our web site:

HonorFlightCCC.org

One of these buttons is a Capital One site where holders of Capital One credit cards can donate directly to HFCCC with no service charge being added. The other is a Network for Good button where you can use any credit card to make a donation directly to HFCCC, but there is a 5% service charge. They will give you the option to either deduct the 5% from the amount of the donation or add it on to your total bill.

Please take the time to visit the site and click on a button.

Another Way to Donate

If you are an Amazon shopper then please go to smile.amazon.com and choose HFCCC as your charity. Shop as normal and a portion of the eligible purchases will be donated to HFCCC at no cost to you.
